

The Honorable Michael R. Pompeo
Secretary of State
U.S. Department of State
2201 C Street NW
Washington, D.C. 20250

August 22, 2019

Dear Mr. Secretary,

As we mark the second-year anniversary of the continued campaign of genocide against the Rohingya people of Burma on August 25, we call on you to prioritize the pursuit of justice and accountability for the Rohingya people and all ethnic minorities in Burma.

As 575 rabbis and Jewish clergy from 38 states across the U.S. and from many Jewish denominational backgrounds, we collectively serve tens of thousands of American Jews and represent this call-to-action from many more communities and congregations.

As clergy, we have not—and will not—stay silent in the face of genocide. We know all too well, from our own Jewish history, what happens when the international community does not stand up unequivocally in defense of oppressed minorities subject to state-sanctioned hate, oppression and violence.

The Department of State released a report in September 2018 documenting atrocities in Northern Rakhine State, which attests that the violence against the Rohingya people was “extreme, large-scaled, widespread” and “well-planned.” We were deeply disappointed that the report failed to legally determine that there were international crimes committed against the Rohingya people by the Burmese military. The horrifying atrocities outlined in the report—with the full weight and expertise of the Department of State behind it—surely must trigger meaningful U.S. response and actions.

We call on you, Mr. Secretary, as you lead the Department, to defend the rights and dignity of the Rohingya people and other ethnic minorities. We urge you to act decisively to forge a path for justice and accountability in Burma by urgently taking the following steps:

- Support the imposition of further targeted sanctions, including designations under the Global Magnitsky Human Rights Accountability Act in conjunction with the Treasury Department, against Burmese military leaders responsible for the horrific violence against the Rohingya and other ethnic minorities. We welcomed the recent public designations that will deny visas to Senior General Min Aung Hlaing, Vice Senior General Soe Win, Brigadier General Aung Aung, Brigadier General Than Oo, and their immediate family members—but this alone is not sufficient to ensure full justice and accountability for the crimes committed by these individuals. By taking further actions against top Burmese military officials, the U.S. Government will effectively increase its pressure on the Burmese military. Burma’s military-owned enterprises, including the Myanmar Economic Corporation and Union of Myanmar Economic Holding, should also be sanctioned under relevant statutory authorities.

- Utilize the full range of your Department’s diplomatic channels to work with regional allies to collectively urge the Burmese government to reinstate full citizenship for the Rohingya minority and create the necessary conditions to ensure the option of a voluntary, safe and dignified return to Burma—with full consultation from the Rohingya community in the process.
- Utilize the State Department’s diplomatic channels with the Bangladeshi government to enable livelihood options and access to formal education for the Rohingya community living in those camps, based on consultation and guidance by the Rohingya community in the Cox’s Bazar camps, especially for women and children. We also call on you to urge the government of Bangladesh to halt any planned relocation of Rohingya refugees to the flood-prone, desolate island of Bhashan Char or any other uninhabitable location.
- Develop and publicly release a report by the State Department which assesses potential justice options that the United States could support to ensure accountability for the crimes suffered by the Rohingya people and other ethnic minorities in Burma at the hands of the Burmese military. This report should be completed in consultation with civil society and representatives from the Rohingya and other ethnic minority communities in Burma.

The United States must display moral courage and leadership to secure justice and accountability for the Rohingya people. The world needs American leadership now, more than ever. As a cohort of 575 rabbis and clergy, representing tens of thousands of American Jews across the country, we call on you, as the nation’s lead diplomat, to provide that leadership and pursue justice at all opportunities.

Sincerely,

575 American Rabbis and Cantors
