

Pursuing Global Justice
Through Grassroots Change

The Honorable Michael R. Pompeo
Secretary of State
U.S. Department of State
2201 C Street NW
Washington, D.C. 20250

March 26, 2020

Dear Mr. Secretary,

As 302 rabbis and cantors from across 35 states and the District of Columbia representing all major Jewish denominations, we write today to express our deep concerns about the State Department’s Commission on Unalienable Rights. Touted by you as a body that will explore the principles and foundations of human rights in U.S. foreign policy, the Commission’s work has become a thinly veiled effort to apply dangerous religious ideology to curtail the human rights of people across the globe. As Jews, our tradition teaches us that all human beings are created b’tzelem Elohim, in the divine image. As a result, we stand in opposition to any attempt to deny rights to the most vulnerable people, which, as is now apparent, is the Commission’s true aim.

As clergy, we denounce efforts to propose that there is a crisis or a “proliferation” of human rights today. To be clear, this is not the case. Rather, human rights movements around the world – including those for women, girls, and the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer and intersex (LGBTQI) community – benefit all people. We stand in support of their resounding calls for justice. We know from our own history that vulnerable people face stigma, violence, and discrimination simply because of their very identities. Our scriptures teach that we must love our neighbors as we love ourselves – that we must stand up to injustice everywhere.¹ The divine is served only when all people have the opportunity to exercise their rights and live a life of dignity.

Unfortunately, the public views and records of individual Commissioners, and the open meetings of the Commission itself, reject this divine mandate by asserting that there is a hierarchy of rights, with purported freedom of religion and conscience at the top. As religious leaders, we firmly oppose this distinction. We object when supposed religious values are used to promote hate and discrimination against those in vulnerable communities, including denying access to reproductive rights and criminalizing people because of who they are or whom they love.

As 302 Jewish leaders from across this nation, we call on you, Mr. Secretary, to immediately disband the Commission on Unalienable Rights. We urge the State Department to uphold and promote the dignity of vulnerable people around the world. We further demand that the Department cease undermining the ability of women, girls, and LGBTQI people to access their sexual and reproductive health and rights, including abortion services, through this Commission or any other avenue.

As faith leaders, we denounce the Commission's efforts to allow hate and discrimination to masquerade as moral and religious beliefs. Rather, it is our moral obligation to uphold human rights and speak out against injustice and oppression.

Sincerely,

The undersigned 302 Rabbis and Cantors
