

Bring Social Justice to Your Seder

Use these bookmarks to keep your place in the Haggadah and spark dialogue about social change around the table.

AMERICAN JEWISH WORLD SERVICE

FIRST CUP

Awakening

The Passover story began with an awakening, when Moses saw the burning bush and recognized he was called to lead his people from slavery to freedom.

May this first cup of wine be our awakening, calling us to resist the pervasive inequality in our world today and pursue freedom for all.

Conversation Spark

What injustices are you awakening to this year — either in your own community or around the globe?

AMERICAN JEWISH WORLD SERVICE

SECOND CUP

Solidarity

The first cup of wine awakened us to injustice and to our capacity to bring about change. The second cup is the first step toward realizing that change.

We raise our glass in solidarity with all those who experience injustice around the world and dedicate ourselves to bringing freedom together as allies.

Conversation Spark

With whom would you like to grow in solidarity this year?
How can you deepen those relationships?

AMERICAN JEWISH WORLD SERVICE

THIRD CUP

Action

The third cup of wine is our call to action. We commit tonight to acting on our values to bring freedom to all:

We will not stand idly by.

We will stand up, speak out and protest inequity and hate.

We will act on our belief that change is possible.

Conversation Spark

What is one tangible commitment that you can make this year to advance justice?

AMERICAN JEWISH WORLD SERVICE

FOURTH CUP

Freedom

We conclude the Seder with a final cup of wine, symbolizing the final arc of our journey from slavery to freedom tonight.

We savor this taste of redemption and will carry it forward into our lives, as we continue on the journey toward freedom for all.

Conversation Spark

What's one moment you've had this past year that felt like a small piece of redemption?

How does that feeling motivate you to work to bring freedom to all?